Derby City Council

Hello

As we get nearer to the festive season, we hope you'll join us both indoors and out. No-one should miss Derby's biggest ball as the pantomime returns to Derby Arena with Cinderella and you can cast yourselves off and join the Babbling Vagabonds in a swashbuckling Christmas adventure with Captain Sprout and the Christmas Pirates at the Guildhall Theatre. Take a spin on the Cathedral Quarter 3aaa Christmas Ice Rink, browse the Christmas Arts and Craft Fair in the Market Place or experience a traditional Christmas with Family Festivities at Markeaton Park.

As the New Year arrives, we have a season full of music and theatre. We have three gigs from Derby Jazz, including the fabulous Julian Siegel Jazz Orchestra, the jaw dropping guitarist Martyn Joseph and some of Britain's leading folk musicians in folk ballad The Transports.

Great family theatre comes from Oddsocks' The Jungle Book, which promises music, muppetry and laughter and The Giant Jam Sandwich as a classic children's picture book comes to life on stage.

If you celebrate Valentine's Day then you can enjoy a fire-lit meal with your loved one before witnessing the first meeting of Romantic poets Byron and Shelley in A Romantic Affair at Kedleston Hall.

Looking ahead into April, we're excited about the return of the 2Q Festival to the Guildhall Theatre – a mix of headliners and emerging talent and The Ladyboys of Bangkok are back with an energetic, exotic and eclectic new show.

"From winter to spring, Derby LIVE will be putting on another fantastic season of culture.

Great theatre including The Giant Jam Sandwich and The Jungle Book will help warm up the beginning of the year, while Derby LIVE and Lost Boys co-production, A Romantic Affair at Kedleston Hall will be lifting hearts in February.

April will see the cultural delights continue, including The Ladyboys of Bangkok in the Market Place.

Whatever you choose, have a great time!"

Councillor
Martin Rawson,

Deputy Leader of
Derby City Council

No one should miss Derby's biggest ball – at Derby Arena.

Cinderella is the classic fairy tale of a beautiful girl forced to serve her jealous stepsisters. Aided by the silly but loveable Buttons and a Fairy Godmother carefully watching over her, Cinderella dreams of escaping her misery and finding true love and happiness.

A pumpkin magically transformed into a sparkling coach, mice into white horses, a glass slipper and a spell that breaks at midnight, this is the classic rags to riches story. Along with Cinderella's best buddy Buttons and the magical Fairy Godmother pantomime goes will join the journey to escape the misery of her dastardly diva sisters and find true love in the arms of a dashing Prince.

For Christmas 2016 there will be dazzling new sets & costumes, hilarious comedy, fabulous music and dance routines, lots of audience participation and fun for all the family.
