Derby City Council

Hello

As September turns into October the 10th Derby Folk Festival will take over the City Centre, with events taking place in the City Marquee, the Guildhall Theatre, Old Bell Hotel and Derby Cathedral and dance displays throughout the streets and free music performances across the weekend.

Derby LIVE have teamed up with the Lost Boys for Me and Robert McKee - the story of a struggling script-writer who is offered a screenplay to write, only to find out all is not what it seems.

Comedians Omid Djalili, James Acaster and the visually stunning and hilarious Boy with Tape on his Face will bring plenty of laughs to the Guildhall Theatre and Derby Arena will be rocking with the sounds of Happy Mondays + The Bluetones and Catfish and the Bottlemen.

Captain Sprout's Pop up Pirate Shop will keep the kids entertained during the October half term with the chance to create sea creature shadow puppets in a make and play workshop for all the family.

This year's Pantomime Cinderella at Derby Arena is sure to be a hit after last year's spectacular Aladdin and we have a great cast lined up, with TV actor, West End star and comedian Richard Blackwood, Mrs Brown's Boys' Winnie McGooogan and Art Attack's Lloyd Warbey. We'll also be joining the Babbling Vagabonds in a swashbuckling Christmas adventure with Captain Sprout and the Christmas Pirates at the Guildhall Theatre.

ME & ROBERT MCKEE

A PLAY BY GREG MCGEE

Billy, a writer, is reliant on teaching scriptwriting for a living and the bottle for oblivion; his sense of self-worth is teetering on the edge.

When Mac, his best friend, a banker and would-be producer, offers him a screenplay to write, the offer is not all it seems. Anyone can write, writing is the great free market of artistic expression. There's no exams to pass, no subs to pay, no fees, no licence. It's open slather.

Entirely self-regulatory. You can do whatever you please. Like banking. A play for anyone who has tried to write a screenplay, or teach creative writing.
